

who are these advocates of LPfm that feel there is little value in national or regional services. I am a regular listener & contributor to K-LOVE and would be up in arms if it is forced off the air. This seems discriminatory. K-LOVE provides wholesome, loving & uplifting entertainment for the whole family. And there is far to little of this in our world today.